Grand and Reserve Overall Market Swine

1. Market hogs from each class will be sold in the Premium Auction on Saturday, immediately following the sale of steers. The exact number of each breed of hogs sold through the Premium Auction shall be in ratio of the number of such breed shown to the total number of all hogs shown provided however, the maximum number of hogs sold shall not exceed 100. Any hog pulled from the Premium Sale will be replaced in the sale by the next placing hog in the same class.

2. Exhibitors may show, weigh and/or sell no more than two market hogs, except as limited in the general rules. Only 2 hogs per exhibitor allowed on the fairgrounds.

3. The market hog show is terminal.

4. Market hogs will be sifted by weight and/or rupture only. Any hogs sifted by less than two pounds, can be weighed one more time, at the exhibitors choosing, or at last call. Any hog sifted because of weight less than 230 lbs. to more than 280 lbs. with a ten pound tolerance at both ends, must be removed from fairgrounds as designated by the superintendent. ←

Revised 7/20/2015

5. Each breed will be broken into a minimum three classes, as equal as possible according to weight. If classes are over 30 another class will be added.

6. Market hogs will be permanently identified, entered and entry fees paid at a central location on or about Jan. 15. All feeding record contestants must weigh hogs. Vocational AG instructors, project leaders or their appointed representatives must be present. This must be reported to the association secretary by Swine Superintendent.

7. The Grand and Reserve Grand Champion Market Hogs must sell in the Premium Auction. Any hog not selling in the Premium Auction must be so designated immediately following the judging.

8. The market hog sale order will be determined from official placing.

9. Market hogs will be divided into four groups, Duroc, Hampshire, OPB, and Crosses. The breed designations will be made by the Swine Superintendent and/or a committee of the Superintendent's choosing. Breed designations made at weigh in will be final. Each breed will be further divided into at least three classes, as equal as possible, according to weight. Breed guidelines are as follows:
